

JOIN THE POWER NETWORK, THE LEADS GROUP OF THE MONROE AND NEWTOWN CHAMBERS FOR A DYNAMIC PRESENTATION.

Independent Contractor Or Employee?

THURSDAY, January 23, 2014,
8:00 - 9:30 AM

Collaborative Women's Center
500 Monroe Turnpike (Route 111), Suite 16

Gaslight Square is on Route 111 in Monroe, across from Webster Bank and next to Rite Aid pharmacy. (Parking and entrance in rear, take elevator to second floor)

To register online visit:

www.newtown-ct.com/PowerNetwork

RSVP to Ileana Kotulich, via email:

ikotulich@marykay.com

THIS EVENT IS FREE TO POWER NETWORK MEMBERS

$10.00 FOR GUESTS

Courtney A. George is a principal and chair of Cohen and Wolf, P.C.'s Employment & Labor Group. Ms. George practices in the areas of employment and labor law and commercial litigation. She represents private and public employers in employment litigation, contract negotiations and counseling. Ms. George has experience with many business-related issues, such as discrimination claims and employment-related agency investigations. In addition, she regularly counsels clients on personnel matters, such as disciplinary and termination protocols, employee classification, and compliance with employment-related laws. Active in the community, Ms. George is on the Board of the Women's Business Development Center and 2013 Chair of Greater Valley Chamber Women in Networking.

In this workshop, many employment laws and challenges will be discussed. This presentation will help you understand the difference between an independent contractor and an employee, and provide a series of case examples and tests to help you run your business effectively. Please join us for this interesting and informative workshop!