

OSHA Seminar: Alcohol & Drugs in the Workplace What Connecticut Employers Need To Know

presented by

Alcohol and drugs can have a harmful effect on business and industry. Issues from Marijuana, Amphetamines, Opiates, Cocaine or even OTC medication use can range from lost productivity, absenteeism, injuries, fatalities, theft, low employee morale, to an increase in health care costs, legal liabilities and workers' compensation claims.

Many business owners, managers and HR professionals have expressed the need for clarity on the laws and what it means to their business.

Join us for this interactive seminar featuring Courtney George, Principal and Chair of Cohen and Wolf, P.C.'s Employment & Labor Group; Philip Adamo, M.D., MPH, CIME, FACOEM, Griffin Hospital; and Brian Essenter, R. Ph., Dispensary Manager, Compassionate Care Center.

Walk away with a better understanding of the importance of having a drug and alcohol testing policy; Drug testing process; Medical Marijuana; Difference between CBD and THC; Signs to look for from an employee who may be under the influence and how to handle them and more.
