06.01.2020

Event Sponsor: Shehan Center

This summer, Cohen and Wolf Attorneys Robyn Drucker and Alex Copp hosted two Zoom workshops providing interview skills and tips to campers and camp counselors at the Cardinal Shehan Center in Bridgeport, Connecticut. The workshop was targeted towards current high school students, and students entering high school, to help prepare them for the workforce. As fellow members of the Bridgeport community, we're very happy to be working with the Shehan Center and we look forward to future opportunities to partner.
