The Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities (CHRO) Time's Up Act requires employers of all sizes to provide sexual harassment training to supervisors by October 1, 2020.

Employers with at least three employees must provide this training to all other employees, not only supervisors, also by October 1, 2020 (or within six months of hire, after that date).

Certificates of Completion that meet state requirements will be issued for those who participate in the full program.
