

Cohen and Wolf attends 2019 Lavender Law Conference

08.08.2019

Cohen and Wolf was proud to send two representatives to the 2019 Lavender Law Conference, the largest annual conference for LGBTQ+ and ally legal professionals. The three day conference attracts approximately 1,700 attendees and includes plenary sessions and dozens of workshops addressing a broad variety of legal topics relevant to the LGBTQ+ community and to the promotion of diversity and inclusion in the field generally.
