BRIDGEPORT, Conn. – The law firm of Cohen and Wolf, P.C. is pleased to announce that Robyn H. Drucker, an associate with the firm, has been recognized by the Connecticut Law Tribune as a “New Leader in the Law” and has been named to the Fairfield County Business Journal’s “Forty Under 40” list.

The Connecticut Law Tribune recognizes attorneys who have excelled in one or more of the following categories: the courtroom, client service and cultivation, service to bar associations, pro bono work and/or community service. Ms. Drucker was among 25 attorneys named this year from law firms throughout the state of Connecticut as a “New Leader in the Law”. The selection process consisted of outside nominations and internal review. Award recipients were honored at the Connecticut Legal Awards Dinner held in Hartford on October 3rd.

Earlier this year, Ms. Drucker was named among Fairfield County’s young professionals to the 2017 “40 Under Forty” list sponsored by the Fairfield County Business Journal. Recipients of this award were selected from the corporate, nonprofit and governmental worlds. The “40 Under Forty” list represents individuals who have demonstrated leadership in their profession and who are part of Fairfield County’s business growth.

Resident in the firm’s Bridgeport office, Ms. Drucker’s law practice involves a wide range of business and real estate transactions including corporate formation, mergers and acquisitions, commercial lending and real estate purchases, sales and leasing. She also practices in the area of labor and employment providing guidance to employers regarding personnel policies and procedures. She has experience drafting employee handbooks and employment agreements. Ms. Drucker is a member of the Business Law and Real Property Sections of the Connecticut Bar Association, and serves on the Executive Committee of the Real Property Section.

In addition to practicing law, Ms. Drucker serves as Vice President of the Board of Directors of Seymour I. Hollander House and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Westport Farmers Market.

Ms. Drucker is recognized as a “Rising Star” by Super Lawyers® (2017) in the area of Business/Corporate. She earned her B.A., magna cum laude, from the University of Rochester and her J.D. from Boston University School of Law.
