Two Cohen and Wolf Principals Named "New Leaders in the Law"

Connecticut Law Tribune
10.03.2014

BRIDGEPORT, CT - The law firm of Cohen and Wolf, P.C. is pleased to announce that David M. Morosan and L. Joyelle Maini, principals in the firm's Bridgeport, CT office, have been named to the Connecticut Law Tribune's "New Leaders in the Law" for 2014.

Ms. Maini and Mr. Morosan are among 60 attorneys selected for this prestigious award from nearly 300 nominations of well qualified attorneys from various types of organizations, large and small. They will be honored at the "New Leaders in the Law" Awards Dinner on Thursday, November 6, 2014.

Ms. Maini is a principal in Cohen and Wolf's Trusts and Estates, Tax and Elder Law Groups. She helps clients achieve their tax savings goals by providing strategic advice on legal matters related to complex estate planning issues; and assists elderly and disabled clients with Medicaid asset preservation planning.

Ms. Maini serves on the Board of Directors of the Greater Bridgeport Bar Association, as well as the Coalition for the Advocacy, Prevention, and Elimination of Older Adult Abuse (CAPE), a collaborative effort of over 40 agencies and businesses in Greater Bridgeport, including the Jewish Home for the Elderly, and the Board of the Bridgeport Arts & Cultural Council. She is named a "Rising Star" by Connecticut Super Lawyers (2013), and fluent in Italian.

Mr. Morosan is a principal in Cohen and Wolf's Business & Corporate, Securities, Real Estate, Physicians Practices, Common Interest Communities and Commercial Lending Groups. His practice includes a broad range of business and real estate transactions, including entity formation, corporate governance, mergers, acquisitions, securities, private equity and venture capital transactions, and all aspects of commercial real estate, including acquisition, financing, leasing, conveyance and development.
